Stonemood White Tiles:

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Stonemood is an extra-large format range inspired by natural stone, it has a gentle veining to give character and movement, with a soft matt finish, perfect for creating the concept of seamless living. Available in two subtle neutral colourways creating a calm tranquil space. Made in a thinner 8mm porcelain composition whilst still maintaining its hard wearing and durable characteristics of a 10mm porcelain with the same breaking strength. The advantage of the 8mm is a lighter option for handling.

What's special about these tiles?

- > They are a stunning white stone effect.
- > Their large size is ideal for open-plan living spaces to create a seamless effect.
- > Their 8mm thickness reduces their weight and also makes them suitable for underfloor heating.
- > Their ceramic body is practical and hard-wearing, yet beautiful.
